Welcome New Staff Members

Welcome back! We hope you all had a lovely Christmas break and have returned well rested. Following Mr Rayner's letter in December, we would like to welcome our new members of staff:

Miss Lowe - who will be teaching Elm Class (Year 3/4) for four days a week, supported by Mrs Ashley-Irving who will be teaching one day.

Mrs Loakes - who has been supporting Elm Class for many months, has been appointed permanently as a Teaching Assistant. With her many years of experience as a qualified teacher, she will be a fantastic asset to the team.

Mr Quinn-Dawes, who is also a qualified teacher, has been appointed as a Teaching Assistant and Cover Supervisor, working across Cedar Class (Year 6) and Oak Class (Year 4/5).

Mrs Watt has joined our support staff and will be based in our new provision, The Hive.

Mrs Snow has also joined us since our return this month, she is working as Executive Headteacher across our school and Alford Primary while the governors recruit a permanent Headteacher. Mrs Waddingham is the Head of School and is on site every day.

Attendance

Our whole-school attendance has risen slightly above the local and national figures at 95.%.
